

The QRRRWNI Barambah Branch Bursary

2018 Bursary Program

The Barambah Branch of the Queensland Rural, Regional and Remote Women's Network (QRRRWNI) are offering the second of their annual bursaries to provide support for women of the South Burnett Region who are looking to further their personal or business development. The successful applicant will receive support of $1000 towards training of their choice.

To be eligible to apply for this bursary, you must be:

- A female resident of the South Burnett Region.
- Over 30 years of age.
- Seeking financial assistance to gain additional skills via training and personal or business development

The successful applicant will be required to report, in person, to the QRRRWNI Barambah Branch on their progress and use of the bursary within ten months of receiving the bursary.
